ANALYSIS OF EXPERIENCE :

- With the exposure and experience gained from field level postings, government level assignments, both at state and central level, and public sector corporation deputations over the last thirty five years, Mr. Sarin developed a keen insight and perspicacity into the myriad problems and challenges of development in Developing Countries. Mr. Sarin has also developed a keen insight in the use of policy as an effective instrument for spearheading socio-economic transformation in developing countries. This experience was also buttressed by the upgrading of his qualifications and honing of skills from time to time.
- In his assignments in DoPT, Mr. Sarin has coordinated all personnel matters in Govt. of India regarding recruitment, capacity building and training, career development, staff welfare and post-retiral benefits.
- In the discharge of his duties and functions, Mr. Sarin had to work very closely with the Department of Legal Affairs and Legislative Department.
- The assignment of Principal Secretary, Finance enabled Mr. Sarin in developing a broader vision and perspective regarding the importance of financial management, accountability and utilization of public funds for reaching the desired policy outcomes.

- Mr. Sarin has also varied international experience. His last assignment has been that of Advisor, Small and Macro Enterprises in the Ministry of Trade and Industry, Government of Republic of Namibia Cooperation Programme. Mr. Sarin has also served as a Member of the UNDP Terminal Evaluation Mission for the National Leather Development Programme of Government of India in 1999. He has also functioned as State Counterpart for the World Bank Aided Bihar State Public Tubewell Project in Patna, Bihar in 1986.
